FRIENDLY REMINDER:

San Francisco Womxn's Flag Football League: League Description: "We're a rad flag football league in SF open to women, trans and all gender non conforming folks!" Just a friendly reminder that not everyone in the league goes by the pronouns she / her. There are many in the league who go by they/them or he/him. If someone corrects you if you used the wrong pronoun, just be cognizant for the future. Not sure what pronouns someone uses? Just ask! We are all friendly players in this league.

Week 3 GAME RECAPS

Honeys 6 vs Burners 0

This game was a nail biter until the very end. Stef "Shiz" put the only points on the board for either team on a 40 yard punt return in the first half. Erica "Toot" Horn came close to equalizing late in the second half but got her flag pulled after an amazing long run. "We showed grit, showed composure and had some big defensive plays," said captain, Alex Rodriguez. Burner's Captain Horn was pleased with the close game, "Our defense is fantastic. We are continuing to grow and reach our potential. Watch out!"

Call Me's 18 vs Hi Tops 6

Hi Tops Mikey scored their only points early. It was a come behind victory for Call Me's. Kayla Clark had two TDs— one catching, one receiving and Becca with one TD. Kayla's thoughts, "With all the new people and new offense we are trying to run we really started to come together in Week 3. We are coming for the championship." Ash Avila of Hi Tops, "We performed well but we need to focus on what we're trying to run. At times we are like chickens with no heads. We gotta keep our heads on."

First String 30 vs Tacos 0

Taco Larissa "Lars" had an early opportunity to score early on but got her flag pulled just 5 yards shy of the end zone. Was 16-0 at half and Tacos fought hard coming close to get points on the board but just falling short. First String's Monica had to say, "We played pretty well... Tacos pushed us a bit which was great. On any given Sunday anything can happen." Gretchen was proud of her Tacos, "I feel really great about our team's performance. Our goal was to be decisive in play calling, run our routes correctly and be organized. We almost scored a number of times. Overall I feel good!"

Cosmos 20 vs Meow Mix 0

Cosmos got on the board early with a catch in the end zone by Mobar. Meow Mix is picking up their game. They kept it competitive getting several first downs and an interception. Kitty Kaptain Sam, "Our next practice is team meditation and working on our chemistry. It's like dating. We're still getting to know each other. Cosmos Nikki Reid was excited about the shut out victory, "I'm excited to see our players grow. We finally put all the pieces together. A lot more victories to come if I had to guess!"

Iron Tails 27 vs BTPU 0

Hard fought match between two great teams. Oakley barked for his mommies and missed them while they were making great plays. Iron Tails Mel Smith, "BTPU put up a good fight. They're a fun team to play and showed great sportsmanship. Our new players are really contributing. Excited to see where the season goes. BTPU's captain Val, "I'm really proud of my team. We're improving. We have fun while playing the game. I really liked Iron Tails strategic plays. It's inspiring and something to work towards."

From Upper Right, Gretchen in a helmet, HB's S. Hill and Mando, BTPU in the huddle, Cosmos' Celeste with the near one handed interception, Nori "Hollywood" White looking good, referees Manny Sr, Manny Jr and Fulton, Call Me's Kayla and Sawyer.
