

THE SFWFFLER

April 17, 2019

Hello SFWFFL Nation,

I had a BYE week last Sunday and was in the faraway mystical land of Florida so I have no colorful commentary to add about last week's games. In case you haven't looked at a calendar recently, there are TWO regular season game weeks left. Then, playoffs are on May 5, with the playoff championship on May 19. First String is in a strong position to take the regular season championship with 18 points, but Afterburners are trailing with 13 points, followed by Tacos with 12 points. Full standings are below. See everyone Sunday!

Standings as of April 15, 2019

Thank you, league statistician, Juliet Rubio (Call Me's).

THE SFWFFLER

FEATURED TEAM: Call Me's

As one of the longest-running teams in the league, we try to keep our competitive edge while having a good time. Probably best known for our ever-present mimosa cooler and solo cups, we're great at evading defenders, but less great at avoiding hangovers. With our wide range of ages, genders/non-conforming, and backgrounds, we couldn't be more different individually, but the football field is our common ground and we have a lot of love for our queer family (within our own team and the league in general). We are a drinking team with a football problem, so come hang with us on the sidelines!
