

Hello SFWFFL Nation,

I really should be scrambling to get work done before I head out on PTO for the long weekend, but why not work on the SFWFFLer instead? There were some great games this past week. First String had an impressive showing over the rookie team, Loose Cannons, 48-0. After Burners burned the Badgers in the last 3 seconds of the game with a sneaky touchdown pass from Burner QB Erica Horn. Horn found Jaci Davey in the endzone which brought the 8-8 tie to 14-8 in favor of After Burners. It was a close game between Call Me's and Flaming Flags. Call Me's rookie Kiera stepped up to play QB and led Call Me's to a great effort, but Flags edged Call Me's 19-14. Iron Tails beat the Cosmos 14-6.

In other news, it was Friends and Family Day this past Sunday. It was fun to celebrate football with our friends and family. Mimosas and many complex carbs were shared! A special thanks to all the volunteers who helped and offered their time, assistance, and Costco membership (thanks, Brez!) to procure supplies, making the event a success!

Sunday 4/14 After Parties
Choose Your Own Adventure

There is not just one, but TWO after parties to choose from this Sunday. The San Francisco Gay Softball League (SFGSL), Women's Division, is hosting their season Beer Bust fundraiser this Sunday at Jolene's. (See Facebook link here.) Starting at 4:00PM, for $10, get all the 805 beer you can (safely) drink. In the East Bay, it's Soulovely in Oakland. I have never been, but it's described online as "a sassy queer soulful day-time outdoor Oakland party" monthly event every 2nd Sunday 3p-9pm. Both sound fun!
